HIS FIRST GAME

Goobers Jump on Portsmouth Star, Pounding Him for Sixteen Hits and Twelve Runs.

Petersburg. Va. May 23.—Herbert, the brag twirler of the Pirates, lost his first game this afternoon when the Goobers landed on him for sixteen hits with a total of twenty-four bases, and made twelve runs. The game was a loosely played one on the part of the Goobers, and this was owing to the fact that the team played mithout Goobers, and this was owing to the fact that the team played without Busch and Spencer being in the game. The Pirates owe their nine runs to the errors of the locals. Hedgeth pitched good ball, barring his wildness. In the eighth inning the Pirates made five runs, taking the lead over the Goobers by two runs, but the Goobers came back in great style, and aided by Herbert, who lost his nerve and became wild, and hits by Simmons, Richmond, Blackstone and Barnett, brought in five runs and won the game. The hitting of Blackston, Barnett, Simmons and Krepps were the features of the game. The score:

MEDIOCRE CARD

Louisville, Ky., May 23.—Racing of a very mediocre character obtained at Churchill Downs to-day, mainly because of the heavy condition of the races failed to excite much enthusiasm. The gentlemen's cup race, an annual fixture at this trick, was the headliner of the card, and five amateur "riders" had mounts. Beautiful, the favorite, received such a weird ride that third was the best she could get. The winner turned up in Sam Bernard, which practically ran away with his rider and came down to the wire a city block in front of Dr. Waldo Briggs. The latter outran his company for the falter outran his company for the stretch. The biggest upset of the day came with the running of the fourth race, when High Private, the topheavy favorite, was beaten by Royal Tea, cleaned up a small fortune on the race. On his last previous start Royal Tea finished absolutely last.

Coffey, Having Better of Fight in Earlier Rounds, Worn Down by Veteran.

New York, May 23.—Jim Coffey, "the Dublin giant," was outfought by Jim Flynn, the Pueblo heavyweight in their ten-round bout here to-night. Coffey had age, weight, reach and 70 per cent of the house with him when he started, but the battle-scarred when he started, but the battle-scarred warrior of Pueblo ripped and tore and slashed his way to victory, whaling away at his taller opponent until he reduced him to six feet of staggering, knock-kneed humanity. Not since the memorable fight between Ketchell and O'Brien has so much real fighting been crammed into ten rounds, and it was Flynn's experience, aggressiveness and cast iron jaw which won for him. cast iron jaw which won for him Georg, Rodel, the "fighting Boer," beat Sallor Kearns.

The fight between Kearns and the Boring Boer was rather a slow affair, and the crowd seemed inclined to demand more action on the part of the heavyweights, but when the soldier had taken his injured optic into the dressing room and the Boer had gone away, waving his gloves in the air Coffey and Jim Flynn more than made up for the leisure of the first pair. For some reason best known to himself, Flynn elected to stand still for the better part of the round and allow Coffey to pop him on the jaw with rights and lefts, and the Dublin import made the most of his opportunities. Wants Navy to Stick to "Port" and "Starboard."

Washington, May 23.—Rear-Admiral Cameron Winslow, in command of the Florida, has protested to the Navy Department against the change of "port" and "starboard" to "right" and "left" as ordered by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, and cites an instance on his ship when his order to the signal officer, "ships left" was repeated by the ship's officer "ships's right." signal officer, "snips left" was repeated by the ship's officer "ships's right."

The Navy Board, of which Admiral Dewey is chairman, took the protest under consideration, and after restating the reasons for the change, The Vaughan-Robertson Drug Company says: "It is not because the terms 'right' and 'left' are similar in sound to cause danger or confusion. The general board recommends that there be no change in the present department order." The department has also received news from one of the new battleships that with only a week's tria; the crew were "enthusiastic over the change."
